Timing is everything ... If you want to wait till February and have the builder pay your mortgage at $2700 per month then this house is definitely more than you'd ever hoped for and well worth waiting for...

A Stunning Bali Style 4 bed + study display home with so many exceptional quality extras, including the very serene water feature viewed from the front entrance. The wooden bridge leads you to the pivot entry door and into a fabulous wide entrance with glass windows overlooking the central Alfresco entertainment area, the water feature and providing a view through to the living areas. Light and, airy, this home's open design with window walls is spacious with a design that truly flows.

The master bedroom with doors out to the Alfresco, has great wardrobe space tucked behind the bed, with a very
