You are in for such a lovely surprise as soon as you drive up to this gorgeous renovated 3 bedroom + large study home close to the parks and the shopping centre.

Great street appeal is the first thing you notice... some homes just feel "right" and this family home is one of the best. The layout is excellent with a formal lounge and dining room flowing through to a good sized open plan family room with a dining area and a "great" kitchen with double oven, plenty of bench space and overlooking the garden. Looking out the window you will see a very pretty lemon tree, private landscaped garden a huge outdoor pergola and plenty of room with a fenced cemented area (ideal if you have dogs or want additional play area) plus a shed.

Inside you'll instantly see how fresh it looks having recently
